SUBMITTED)

I am submitting my application for Pension to Government as my pension has to commence from 29.11.49.

I beg to submit that I entered service on the 12th Aug '20 and relinqished it on 28-11-1949. Thus the service put in amounts to 29 years, 3 months and 17 days. This will entitle me to a pension of Rs.483 1/3.

I wish to mention here that during my service of this long period, I have scareely taken more than a few months of privilege leave or other leave. I have worked continuously for this long period holding important functions such as Commissioner of Labour and Chairman of various concerns etc., in addition to being the Director of Industries & Commerce, without getting any extra remuneration for such work.

I am informed that in a few cases of Heads of Departments, full pension of Rs.500/- a month has been awarded even though they have fallen short of the qualifying period for full pension, as in my case. To quote some instances, Sastravaidyapraveene Dr.Miss. Albuquerque has been sanctioned such a pension in G.O.No.Fl.7866/S&A.20-40-4 dated 15-1-1949. I hear that in the case of Dr. S. Subba Rao and Dr. B.K. Narayana Rao, similar concessions have been granted.

I, therefore, request you to kindly consider my long service and grant me full pension of Rs.500/- a month condoning a short deficit of a few months in the qualifying period for full pension.

Bangalore,
Dt.3.12.49.
